

Patrick John Healy

San Mateo, CA
(<http://bit.ly/3ICeBhJ>)
Phealy881@gmail.com
650-524-5006

OBJECTIVE: Seeking either freelance, volunteer, or intern work in broadcasting and/or media production.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS:

- Computer literate on macOS, iOS, and Windows
- Have used Mackie ProFX 6v3 mixers with XLR, Mixxx, and Audacity while working for KDOG Radio
- Ran KDOG Radio live broadcasts from the Studio and Booths at College of San Mateo
- Ran KDOG Radio from my own home during the pandemic on Windows 7 and macOS
- Working knowledge of Final Cut, Logic Pro, and Premiere

SOFT SKILLS:

- Able to help people and problem solve many computer issues
- Adapt well to any environment
- Critical thinker and problem solver
- Enthusiastic and motivated
- Responsible and accountable
- Work well on a team

EDUCATION:

Spring 2006 - Present

College of San Mateo, San Mateo, CA.

A.A. in Broadcast & Electronic Media

Second Certificate in Digital Video Production (Received in 2016)

First Certificate in Digital Video Production (Received in 2014)

Coursework: Digital Video Production, TV Studio Production, Radio Production Lab, Film and New Digital Media, and Recording for Musical Applications

Summer 2004 - Spring 2006

Heald College, Hayward, CA.

A.S. in Network Systems

Coursework: Customer Service, and Server management (Linux and Windows 2000).

WORK EXPERIENCE:

June 2016 – March 2020

The Tech Interactive, Downtown San Jose, CA.

Volunteer

- Ran Living Colors Lab, Jet Pack Simulation game, and the Earthquake Simulation Pad
- Helped as a docent at Body Worlds Decoded, The Tech Studio, and Cyber Detectives
- Assisted the visitors as needed at Social Robots

October 2013 – March 2015

Berkeley Community Media, Berkeley, CA.

Student Intern.

- Assisted with converting the classroom into the studio as needed.
- Converted DVDs to MP4 for broadcast
- Learned about studio lighting from the former director of education
- Archived historical footage from the VHS archive library